(Company)

The Chair evaluates the performance of the Board, any committees and individual Director's by way of questionnaires which are completed by each Director. The Chair, in consultation with the Company Secretary, then reviews the questionnaires and holds a round table discussion with the Board to discuss the questionnaires. The Chair holds discussions with individual Directors, if required. The Chief Executive Officer's performance evaluation is reviewed by the Chair. The Chair conducts a performance evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer by way of formal discussion during which his/her performance is assessed against key performance indicators set the previous year. In addition, key performance indicators are agreed for the following year. The Chief Executive Officer reviews the performance of the Senior Executives. The evaluations are performed by conducting interviews with the Senior Executives, as required.
